

Sample Production Faculty Evaluation Form

ASU School of Theatre and Film

Student Evaluation of Faculty Production Personnel

(Fall 2004)

Please provide your perspective on your production experience and the faculty member with whom you worked. Your responses will help the faculty member assess the strengths and weaknesses of this particular production experience so future production work can be improved. Fair and honest responses are important, because these evaluations determine, in part, the instructor's annual performance rating for the School of Theatre and Film. Your anonymous responses will be reviewed by the faculty member, the Director, and Theatre's Personnel Committee when the semester has ended. PLEASE WRITE ADDITIONAL COMMENTS DIRECTLY ON THE SEPARATE COMMENTS PAGE PROVIDED.

FOR THE FOLLOWING NUMBERED QUESTIONS, USE THE SCANTRON SHEET PROVIDED TO RECORD YOUR ANSWERS IN PENCIL, USING THE FOLLOWING KEY:

A = Strongly Agree B = Agree C = Not Applicable or No Opinion D = Disagree E = Strongly Disagree

1. The faculty member communicated his/her vision or production needs effectively.
2. The faculty member conveyed enthusiasm for the people and production process.
3. The faculty member conveyed respect for the people and production process.
4. The faculty member demonstrated and communicated accurate and current knowledge of the field.
5. The faculty member communicated production responsibilities and time commitments clearly.
6. My production schedule was carefully and conscientiously adhered to.
7. This production experience contributed to my overall growth as a theatre artist or craftsperson.
8. I felt able to approach this faculty member with questions and concerns related to his or her area of specialty.
9. The faculty member is interested in the students as individual participants.
10. The faculty member is an effective role model for students.
11. The faculty member responds to questions/situations/individuals in a positive manner.
12. The faculty member creates an environment conducive to student learning and creativity.
13. The faculty member works to provide an effective collaborative environment.
14. The faculty member creates an environment allowing for diversity and equal opportunity.

Complete the Student Evaluation of Faculty Production Personnel: Comments Page. Write directly on the page.